BLOUNT'S REPORT PUBLISHED

It Was Stolen from the Public Printer.

SILVER MEN TO RENEW THE FIGHT

The Sherman Law Was Not to Blame for the Hard Times.

Blount's Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The publication of Blount's Hawaiian report this morning does not seem to have disconcerted the state department particularly. It contains little aside from what was summarized and indicated in Gresham's letter to the president. Gresham declines to talk about it. It is intimated that the report was stolen from the government printing office, where it was put in type Saturday night. Hawaiian Minister Thurston is in consultation with Gresham this morning.

Silver Repeal.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Silver men propose to renew the silver fight when congress meets. Bland says sufficient time has elapsed since the repeal of the Sherman law to show that it is not responsible for hard times, and that its repeal instead of helping matters has made them worse. He says he has private assurances from a large number of those who voted for repeal to make it evident that he can get a majority in the house for free coinage, and he has prepared a bill for early introduction which is practically a revival of the free coinage law of 1837, and makes silver coins of all denominations full legal tender to any amount. It is his purpose not to push this bill at once, but to allow first reasonable time for the passage of the tariff bill. He thinks there should be a heavy reduction in the tariff and a large income tax imposed.

Ohio Official.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 20.—Official count show McKinley had plurality of 80,995, and majority over all 43,028 in late election.

The Lehigh Strike.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 20.—No train over the Lehigh Valley road, has left here since last night. This morning the strikers congregated at Johnson avenue bridge and threw stones at the men in charge of the engines. An extra force of police was sent there and to the yards.

Brazilian Cruiser.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The Brazilian cruiser Niechero passed Sandy Hook outward bound this morning, headed south, at half speed.

Bombs Found.

BARCELONA, Nov. 20.—Six loaded bombs have been found in a garden of a private house. It is supposed they were hidden there by anarchists.

Mexico's Grievance.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Mexican minister has complained to the Secretary of State that Texas do not try to prevent the violation of neutrality laws.

Fighters Wanted.

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 20.—The Mexican revolutionists have scattered circles throughout the valley on both sides of the Rio Grande, offering men $250 a day to fight, each man to furnish himself 100 cartridge, and $5 a day to men armed with rifle and pistol. The circular was signed Santa Ana Perez, general-in-chief of the North. Micaro Paebe and Valente Garcia were named as the other rebel generals. The idea of the leaders of the rebel forces is to offer inducements to the great army of unemployed passing through this point from California, and by their aid effect the capture of the northern states of Mexico. Rebellion is already manifest in the south of that republic.

EARTHQUAKE AND STORMS.

Terrible Destruction On Land and Sea—Snow Blockade In England.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—A dispatch says the town of Kuchan, Persia, is two-thirds destroyed by an earthquake. The gale in the English channel was renewed with fury today. Disasters and fatalities are reported on all sides, and distressed vessels are seen off every part of the coast. The storm is also continuing havoc inland. Railroads are blocked with snow. In one place a train is in a 20 foot snow bank, and a gang of 100 men with a snow plow have been at work all day trying to release it.

The Storm off England.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 19.—The gale continues and reports arriving here after many hours delay, owing to the breakdown of the telegraph wires indicate an immense amount of damage has been done shipping throughout the country. At Holyhead 20 lives have been saved up to noon. 10 of them being from a French brigantine which went ashore near that place. At Scarborough, a fashionable English watering place, more or less damage has been done to a number of houses. At Sunderland several houses have been partially wrecked and one building collapsed, killing a woman. The chimney of a paper mill near Kendal fell during the storm, killing three people. At Dundee a pilot cutter was wrecked in the Tay and the crew clung to the wreck for several hours before rescued by a lifeboat. The steamer Uolou was wrecked near Dundee and four of the crew drowned. In addition, there were many minor shipping casualties. A dispatch from Fraserburgh says the storm eclipsed in severity that of the night of the Tay bridge disaster. At Huddersfield a chimney fell, killing two people. A large steamer foundered near Rocky headland, called the Garron. The sand beach near the Banff shore is strewn with wreckage, and it is learned the crew numbering 25 hands, were lost with the vessel. Lord and Lady Morton and family had a narrow escape on board their steam yacht, which was driven by the storm with great force, smashing in the starboard bulwarks. The party was rescued with some difficulty and placed aboard the steamer until the storm had abated.

Bank Cashier Arrested.

NEW WHATCOM, Wash., Nov. 19.—Colonel C. M. Atkins, of the governor's staff, cashier of the suspended First National bank of this city, was arrested at his residence here by Deputy United States Marshal McGinnis on a warrant issued by United States Commissioner Spriggs, of Seattle, sworn out by J. K. Rae, partner of ex-Treasurer Ives in the logging business. There are seven allegations in the complaint, the charges being that Mr. Atkins, as cashier of the bank, embezzled and misapplied certain specific sums deposited therein and made false entries in the bank's books, reports and statements. The news of the arrest created a sensation when it became known. The general opinion of persons well acquainted with Mr. Atkins is that such summary proceedings are altogether uncalled for and unjust. Some say it is pure spite work, growing out of the sale some time ago of improvement warrants of the city of old Whatcom, which the bank received from Rae as collateral for a large advance in contracts and was urged to dispose of finally to secure its claims. Atkins says that the allegations of criminality are untrue, that he can account satisfactorily for the entries alleged to be false, and for all payments of money made by him as cashier. The books of the bank have been open for five months since the bank suspended and he believes his administration of the bank's affairs will compare with that of other institutions.

FROM KANAKA LAND.

Minister Stevens Assisted the Hawaiian Rebels.

MARINES LANDED WITHOUT EXCUSE

Minister Willis Found Sentiment Against the Queen.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The Herald prints under a Washington date what purports to be a large portion of the report of Commissioner Blount, and sums up as follows: Commissioner Blount's report will show that Minister Stevens landed troops from the Boston long before there was any valid excuse for their presence on Hawaiian soil, and declined to remove them when requested to do so by the government, and was informed by the authorities they were willing and able to preserve order and protect the American interests.

The troops were stationed across the street from the government building, in which Minister Stevens knew the revolutionists were about to read a proclamation, and the revolutionists' committee relied upon the American troops to protect them in the act of rebellion; that Stevens recognized the provisional government according to a preconceived programme before that government obtained possession of the department and military power at Honolulu, and the military power surrendered as the Queen surrendered, only through awe of the superior force of the United States. Commissioner Blount did the work with great thoroughness. During the five or six months of his stay in Honolulu he worked with a single purpose, to ascertain the truth. He secured statements from members of the cabinet of the deposed queen, from members of the committee of safety which brought about the revolution; from the officers of the Boston, and from other persons, including the queen herself. Some of these persons were examined by Blount, a stenographer being present.

Provisional Government Strong.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—It has been the chief fear of the friends of the provisional government of Hawaii in this country that, in its ignorance of public sentiment here and the first shock of threatened action by the United States, it would yield its authority. The fact is, however, that for some time past the provisional government had abandoned all hope of favorable action by the present administration toward annexation, and had been considering means to put itself on a permanent footing. It may be the public and press have come to a wrong conclusion as to the extent of Minister Willis' instructions. They have supposed that Secretary Gresham's letter, declaring what he thought should be done, and President Cleveland's declaration that he agreed with the secretary's opinions meant they had determined to proceed accordingly. Yet some people believe the publication must have been intended as an appeal to public opinion for information as to the course to pursue. It was considered that the chances of action by Minister Willis to re-tore the queen would be much lessened after the news of the reception accorded Secretary Gresham's letter in this country had been read in the islands.

The first news of Secretary Gresham's letter ought to reach Honolulu by the steamer which left Vancouver Thursday, or the one that left San Francisco Friday, but last Sunday or Monday a chartered steamer left San Francisco for Honolulu, having on board some newspaper men, and doubtless also some communication from Minister Thurston to his government. This would be after the next steamer to arrive at San Francisco had sailed from Honolulu.

A prominent Democratic senator and a member of the foreign relations committee, who declined to permit the use of his name, said tonight: "It seems very clear to me that Willis has encountered a state of affairs which he had not been led to expect. The inference justified is that when Minister Willis discovered the feeling of the intelligent people of the islands was favorable to the present government he weakened in his determination to re-tore the queen. If, indeed, the Dole administration displayed a determination to maintain its position by force of arms, there was nothing for Willis to do but to change his plans and ask for further instructions. To have persisted in landing the marines for the purpose of forcing a change of government would have been an act of war, pure and simple, and no sane man can believe President Cleveland ever contemplated such a move as that."

The same senator expressed the view that the islands ought to be annexed to the United States, and said their government could be made simple and easy by constituting them a part of the state of California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—The Call says: "If United States Minister Willis insists upon the reinstatement of Liliuokalani, the deposed queen of Hawaii, that woman will be deported from the islands, and the chances are that the exequatur of President Cleveland's envoy will be canceled and he will be returned to this country as persona non grata. This is rather astonishing news, but it is a fact, and is what the provisional government of those islands has decided upon."

This is based upon a long interview with the ex-counsel-general to Hawaii, Henry W. Severance.

Latest from Hawaii.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 20.—Following Washington special appear in afternoon papers: He laughs best who laughs last. Republicans are having a great deal of fun over Saturday's news from Hawaii. They are pleased to refer to the affair as a fiasco. Neither president nor secretary of state are feeling a bit chagrined however, and when the next steamer from Hawaii arrives it is expected they will then have their turn to laugh. A dispatch from Minister Willis has been translated and the correspondent has it from very high diplomatic authority that there is very little doubt the queen has by this time been restored to the throne. National affairs cannot be transacted so speedily as affairs of individuals.

When the Australia left Hawaii, President Dole probably knew of Willis' instructions and had agreed to grant amnesty to those who opposed her, but they undoubtedly wanted something more than her promise. Arranging this accounts for delay.

Drowned While Hunting.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 20.—Bruce MacLeod, an estimable young business man of this city, was drowned in Philo lake, near Spangle, Saturday morning. With a party of friends he had gone duck shooting. The lake was frozen at the edges and Mr. MacLeod walked out on the ice to get a shot at ducks on the open water. He was warned by his friends, but kept on until the ice broke beneath him. He made a desperate effort to reach shore, breaking the ice as he tried to climb out of the water, but became chilled and sank in sight of his agonized companions, who were powerless to help him. He leaves a young wife. The body was recovered at 4 o'clock and sent to Spokane.

Chinese Ready to Register.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—Official notice has been given the representatives of the government here that the Chinese are ready to register. T. D. Riordan, attorney for the 13 Companies, called upon Collector Quinn, and stated that he had been requested by that body to inform the collector that all the Chinese had been ordered to comply with the requirements of the law. Riordan wished to know when the collector would be ready to enter upon the work, and was informed that about December 1 he would be prepared to commence their registration.

Rebels Are Well Fixed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A World's Buenos Ayres dispatch says a Rio Journal named Mur t has arrived here. He is a refugee. He says the revolutionists have 10 first-class warships, 22 minor warships and 3000 men in the fleet. Provisions are in abundance. The damage caused by the bombardment is already enormous. Niteroy has been almost completely destroyed. The rebel fleet, he says, is anxiously awaiting Peixoto's new squadron and anxious to give them battle. He says the report that Admiral Mello favors the restoration of the monarchy and has proclaimed Prince Pedro as emperor of Brazil is a foul calumny.

LAST NOTICE.

The warrants for the collection of the assessments for improvement of North Commercial, Ferry, State, and Center streets, have been issued, and will be placed in the hands of the marshal for execution Monday morning. Parties desiring to save additional expense, must pay Tuesday.

Paroling Convicts.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 20.—A sal from Folsom says the prison director, at a meeting Saturday, took the first action under the parole law, prisoner under sentence from Shasta county for murder was granted a parole and John Mackey will give him employment and be responsible for him. A Pitt river Indian chief was also paroled. He was sentenced for killing medicine man who had failed to cure his (the chief's) brother. This was a custom of the tribe, but the people Madox wanted to put a stop to it. He caused the chief to be arrested and paroled. The superior judge and others, believing the desired end to have been reached, recommended the chief's parole. The application of Calvin P. the embezzler, was referred by Governor Markham to the board. Pratt called before the directors, but declined to state where the money is and offering to serve the remaining 10 years rather than give it up no action was taken.

Hold-Your-Wheat.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 20.—The farmers of the Northwest, realizing the shortage of wheat, have held several meetings to discuss the situation and decried the causes of the unprecedented low price in the face of this shortage. As a result, another "hold-your-wheat" circular has been issued from Pierre, reads in part as follows: "Every country in Europe, except Russia, has this year had a short wheat crop. Our own crop is at least 100,000,000 bushels under that of last year's, 200,000,000 less than raised in 1891. The general financial stringency of the last six months has brought out large supplies for all. The harvest this year has been a poor one, while the exports have fallen have been large, amounting to about 80,000,000 bushels since the harvest began. After a thorough investigation of the conditions existing, we feel certain that the year 1894 will bring much higher prices, and do not hesitate to urge Northwestern producers to hold their wheat in hand for a few months."
